

call for papers

The sixth edition of the Journées Louis-André Gérard-Varet will take place in Marseille on Marseille, June 14 - 15 2007

This conference aims at encouraging production and diffusion of high quality research in Public Economics, with a special emphasis toward results which clearly contribute to shed light on various aspects of "real world" public decision making. In this sense, this conference is in the spirit of the project of developing the Institut d'Economie Publique (IDEP) to which Louis-andré Gérard-Varet devoted the last years of his life.

The Journées Louis-André Gérard-Varet are open to all fields of public economics, both applied and theoretical. Are especially (but not exclusively) requested papers in the following broad categories of topics:

Taxation (including transfers, social security, etc.)
Local Public Economics and Geographical Economics
Fiscal Federalism
Provision of public goods
Externalities
Political Economy
Auctions and public markets
Regulation of firms
Law and economics
Environment
Health Economics
Education
Normative foundation of public intervention and Social Choice
Income Inequalities
Macroeconomic Policy

Local Organization

The program will include three invited lectures (two are confirmed) which will be given this year by:

Peter Diamond, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) and National Bureau of Economic Research (NBER),

Guy Laroque, INSEE, CREST,

The remaining of the program will be made of a selection of some 20 papers out of the pool of submissions. These submissions, which should at least take the form of a two pages abstract and, preferably, of a version of the complete paper, must be received no later than

March, 15 th 2007 by the scientific committee.

A decision will be communicated to submitters no latter than April 15th 2007.

Submissions may be sent, if possible by e-mail, to
